

Let You Go

Wayne Matthews

Thought I might've had it right for the first time
Like back when I had a heart on the line (Left me)
Yet another little bubble to burst
I know, I know

Thought I must've missed whatever it is that Makes you rocket to the top of the list (I mean it)
Doesn't hurt to work harder than this
I'm sure, I'm sure

So I won't take it slow
Cause I'm better than this and

On and on and on and on we go
Cause I could never leave 'well enough' alone
'Well enough' alone, no
And all I ever really need to know
Is if I'll ever have the sense to let you go
Really let you go, no

(Ooh oh oh) oh
(Ooh oh oh) no
(Ooh oh oh) Let you go, let you go, no

You think I overthink but haven't you heard I
Need a river to just to lessen the thirst I'll Give it just another second or third try
Oh I know, I know

Any less would be a crime to mess that
Found itself a way inside of my head if I
Keep on trying I am bound to hit perfect
Oh I'm sure

So I won't take it slow
Cause I'm better than this

On and on and on and on we go
Cause I could never leave 'well enough' alone
'Well enough' alone, no
And all I ever really need to know
Is if I'll ever have the sense to let you go
Really let you go, no

(Ooh oh oh) oh
(Ooh oh oh) no
(Ooh oh oh) Let you go, let you go, no
(Ooh oh oh) oh
(Ooh oh oh) no
(Ooh oh oh) Let you go, let you go, no

On and on another rhythm and another rhyme
Line by line, god I need another hit and I
Keep it up 'cause I never know when to stop
(I never know when to)

On and on another simile, another sound
Word for word, like I'm living on lyrics I
Keep it up 'cause I never know when to

Cause I'm better than this

On and on and on and on we go
Cause I could never leave 'well enough' alone
'Well enough' alone, no
And all I ever really need to know
Is if I'll ever have the sense to let you go
Really let you go, no

(Ooh oh oh) oh
(Ooh oh oh) no
(Ooh oh oh) Let you go, let you go, no
(Ooh oh oh) oh
(Ooh oh oh) no
(Ooh oh oh) Let you go
